

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Office of the Governor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the State of Mississippi recognizes the dedication, talents, and contributions of state employees to the citizens of Mississippi in many areas, including education, public safety, emergency management, economic development, transportation, human services, health care, and national defense; and

WHEREAS, the efficiency and effectiveness of government depend largely upon a quality workforce that strives to reduce costs and use taxpayer resources wisely; and

WHEREAS, Mississippi's public servants are recognized as an invaluable resource providing assistance to Mississippians in every county of our State; and

WHEREAS, Mississippi is privileged to join other States across the Nation on May 9, 2012, to express appreciation and gratitude to state employees for their service;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Phil Bryant, Governor of the State of Mississippi do hereby proclaim May 9, 2012, as

State Employee Recognition Day in the State of Mississippi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, on the seventh day of May in the year of our Lord, two thousand and twelve, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred and thirty-sixth.
